GOSSIP RESPONSIBLE FOR CHURCH SCANDALS.

By Rev. F. E. Hopkins.

It is doubtful if much harm is done by a church scandal. Those on the inside know that the men and women responsible for it are not of much secount, anyhow. They are usually carrion-like in pafure and skunks in practice. In the past thirty years I have known three or four church scandals, and, without an exception, it was not so much an offense that had been committed, but it was a disposition on the part of a few to roll inferences and suspictous and gessip and guesses all together with per sonal prejudice or dislike for a victim.

There need not be much scandal in any church, how ever, if it will do the one thing it ought to do to be worthy of the respect and support of the people. It ought to do as much for its members, at least, as for those who are not members.

What a spectacle for a church to fairly tumble over itself trying to tell some man who has been a drunk and, thief, liar and all-around villain all his life: "Get down on your knees, dear brother, and in five minutes we will make you white as snow and send you out at a hundred dollars a week as an evangelist to convert simens." But to a man or woman who for thirty or forty years who has lived a blanclees life, but who may have sinned once, it has only this to say. "We will pin the scarlet letter on your breast. We will demand that you be right out of the membership of this church. We wash our hands clean of you. We want nothing to do with you or any member of your family."

Now, I have not a particle of doubt that a church that will do that sort of thing is as near an unitex of

THE CHURCH AND THE REPUBLIC.

There is a union that is intimical to the in tresty of religion, and consequently to the sinter and there is a separation that is himical to the interests of religion, and consequently to the state; and there is a nearmount of the interests of religion, and consequently to the state; and there is a nearmount country separation is a necessity; and it is a separation that works for the best interests of religion, as Mr. Taft recently stated. I fully agree with him, and I can understand, too, and sympatistic with the great catholic leafuer of France, the Count de Mun, who recently exclaimed. In your blood are the millions of corpuscies that defend you against disease.

To make and keep these little soldiers healthy and strong, is simply to make and keep the blood of the right quality and quantity.

This is just what Hood's Sarsapath.

does—it helps the little soldiers in your blood to fight disease for you. It cures scorfula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervous-ness, dyspepsia, general debility, and builds up the whole system.
